ACTUAL SOUND FRONTAGE SHIPPAN POINT. STAMFORD, CONN.

STAMFORD, CONN.

While Shippan Point is entirely cut off from the noise and tumult of city life it has the great advantage of being extremely accessible. Express trains run every hour between Stamford and New York city, it being a 50-minute trip, and the New York. New Haven & Hartford Hailroad Co. has recently assured its patrons that the service between Stamford and New York will be run by electricity by September. The Stamford street railroad system affords excellent trolley service and cars run from the station in Stamford to Shippan Point every 20 minutes.

Stamford has in Shippan Point one of the most beautiful, healthful and desirable residence localities upon the Connecticut shore. The Shippan Point Land Co, has laid out several miles of roads and installed a perfect system of sewerage therein; individual property owners have contributed towards the installation of sewers, widening and macadamizing of streets and the beautifying thereof by the planting of trees and shrubs. While this development work has been going on sales of property have followed one another in quick ruscession and beautiful residences have been crecked, while others are now in process of completion.

I have a number of desirable shore from sites left and shall be pleased to furnish particulars. Shippan Point excels all other locations on Long Island Sound within commuting distance of New York.
